

QUESTION-

- I was just thinking earlier today I need to find a better way to attract more money into my life! Thank you, thank you thank you!

- Thank You! People had started coming to me lately in terms of advice for their relationship and the law of attraction after I reattracted my love back, but lately I've needing someone that I could go to for advice on OTHER issues with the law of attraction besides relationships. Money was one of them, and I'll definitely be on your page almost everyday now.

ANSWER-

Hope you are fine _ _ _ _ _ and attracting more money into your life. Good that you are a money magnet.

See, to bring money into your life, you need to feel happy first. After writing my views here, will put you some money related articles here which I previously share on the page. Your question is good actually as money is next to the oxygen and can say its a life giving factor. But our society has created so negative beliefs for everything that it becomes really difficult to change our mindset. But no worries, you can attract more money easily as its just our mindset that we think like if we want to attract 1 million dollars, its difficult and we would have to do much work, but no, thats wrong. Same time we can attract 1 million like 1 dollar, its just a belief. Rich people have a high mindset and that is why they do not find it difficult to generate bigger amounts of money.

Relax yourself first, come out of daily tensions and feel free. Leave it to the universe, more attachment you have with money, more it runs away, more you let it go and become carefree, more it will follow you.

I know one of my uncle and remember his words, he said once, " I USED TO SEED GOLD AND IT USED TO TURN INTO DUST (Complete Loss), AND NOW I LEFT EVERYTHING AND BESEATED IN A RELAX MANNER, NOT DOING ANYTHING (Let Go), AND WHAT HAPPENED IS I SOW DUST AND IT TURNS INTO A GOLD" and I have personally met him, he has a good house, I rememer, he used to travel on broken scooter and his home was not even in a good shape, and now I see everything changed, he has good cars, imported costly dogs as pets in his home an his home is so beautiful from inside and he is relaxing always and always worshipping God in a carefree and happy manner and his Son works in a very good company at a good profile and his daughter is a business lady settled with her own business in United Kingdom, London.

Another girl I know is my very good friend and I would say is she is the most intelligent when we were studying together, when we used to study together, she used to say, after I would start working, will donate my ten percent of money to the old people in old age homes and would personally meet them, will spend time with them and take their blessings as she used to love it and came from her heart naturally, and I now see she is married to very rich family in Mumbai and spoke to her and told me that its been 5 years, she is with ICICI Bank.

So I have seen lot of people who donate money, if you take example of Bill Gates, the richest person on this earth, is always doing Philanthropy on one side and other side, he is getting in return money many more times.

This is the LAW OF TITHING I am explaining you, where you have to donate 10% of your income to needy people, make sure they are really needy ones, and the money you pay will start coming to you from many sources in a multiplied form. Two days ago I met my friend and she is more comfortable than me spending money, so we had a lunch there in very good restaurant located at the centre of the city at CONNAUGHT PLACE, restaurant name is INDIAN COFFEE HOUSE and they served very good preparations and very good environment inside and we whatever we paid there, shared equally, and she asked me if she can leave 50 bugs as a tip there being a good place, which is quite a big amount to give out for Indians in a restaurant as a tip, so I was confused what to do, but she is bold enough and made a manifestation, I am leaving 50 bugs as a tip here and will receive 50,000 in a multiplied form and left that amount and she felt happy and carefree about that. I learnt a lesson from her. Good good.

So now some people would say if I do not have enough income, how would I spare money for donating, here I would say that, start donating small amount. I remember a true story where a poor person asked one of the saintly figure the same question, then saint asked him, how many Chapatis do you eat per meal, poor man replied 4 chapatis, so saint told him, everytime you take a meal, leave one chapati and give it to needy, and his income started increasing and his financial position became good as he increased donating part.

Other thing I would tell you is that never give your attention to lack of anything. Helping poor people is a different thing, but never be close to the people who always talk negative, or their down financial position, never even choose the slum area to pass from, always pass on from good area while you are going anywhere, because what you vibrate, will become your reality, always be with those people who encourage you, leave them who discourage you, choose your own happiness.

Gratitude is a great multiplier, always say thank you for everything, even if you have less of money, then also, coz it is a rule thatt what you have, and if you feel gratitude, it will be multiplied, and if you do not feel gratitude, it will be taken back, so best thing is to feel happy and grateful for what you have.

I would like to share one of the article be Abraham- Ether Hicks with you. Read the following:

Releasing Resistance to Become Free of Debt

When to Use This Process:

- When you want to experience the relief of being debt free.
- When you want to create a larger spread between what you earn and what you spend.
- When you want to feel better about money.
- When you want to increase the flow of money through your experience.

To begin the process of Releasing

Resistance to Become Free of Debt, obtain a columnar writing pad with as many columns as you have monthly expenditures. Now, beginning in the far left column, write a heading that describes your largest monthly outgo. For example, if the largest check that you write each month is your house payment, then you would write as a header: "House Payment." And next, on the first line beneath the header, write the dollar amount of that house payment. Now, circle this amount, which represents the amount you are obligated to pay each month, and then, on the third line, enter the total outstanding debt for this "House Payment" category.

Next, enter your second largest payment in the second column, your third largest payment in the third column, and so on. And across the top of your columnar pad, write the following affirmation: It is my desire to keep my promise regarding all of these financial obligations, and in some cases I will even do twice as much as is required.

Each time you receive a bill, get out your columnar pad and adjust, if necessary, the minimum monthly amount that is required. If it stays the same, then write the same figure.

The first time you receive a bill, or when it is time to make the payment for the category that is on the far right column of your pad (in other words, the smallest payment you make each month), write the check for exactly twice what is required. And as you do so, write in the new amount of that outstanding balance.

This may seem a little strange to you when you first begin to play the game, but even if you do not have enough money to pay everything you owe in all of the columns, still double the payment in the far right column. And feel glad that you have kept your new promise to yourself to do your best to pay everything you owe, and to do even twice that amount in some cases.

Because you are looking at your finances in a way that is new, your vibration will begin to shift right away.

As you feel even the slightest bit of pride for keeping your word, your vibration will shift. As you keep your promise about doubling up on payments, your vibration will shift. And with this shift, even if it is slight, things will begin to change in your financial condition.

If you will take the time to really enter everything you owe on the columnar pad, your newly focused attention will begin to positively activate circumstances around the subject of money for you. Instead of feeling discouraged as you find yet another bill in your mailbox, you will feel an eagerness to enter the bill on your columnar pad. And with this shift in attitude and vibration, things will begin to change in your financial picture.

Money that you were not expecting will appear in your experience. Bargains will reveal themselves, so your dollars will go further than you expected. All kinds of unusual financial things will occur, and when they do, be consciously aware that these things are happening in response to your newly focused attention and the resultant shift in your vibration.

As extra money appears, you will find yourself eager to apply another payment to the far right column. And soon, that debt will be paid, and you can eliminate that column from your pad. Column after column will disappear as your financial gap between what is coming in and what is going out widens.

Your sense of financial well-being will improve on the first day you play this game. And if you will take the game seriously, your vibration around money will shift so significantly that you can be debt free in a short time, if that is your desire.

There is nothing wrong with debt, but if your debt feels like a heavy burden, then your vibration around money is one of resistance. When the burden has lifted, when you feel lighter and freer, your resistance has lifted, and you are now in the position to allow the Well-Being to flow abundantly into your experience.

*Abraham, Speak to Us More about Money and the Economy

It is as easy to create a castle as a button. It is just a matter of whether you are focused on a castle or a button, but it can also be as satisfying to create a button as a castle. And whether it is a castle or a button, if you are using it as your object of attention, it is summoning the Life Force, and the feeling of the Life Force is what life is about; the reason that you are summoning it is inconsequential.

So what about creating a very positive current of financial abundance? What about getting so good at visualizing that the money flows through you easily? What about expending money, and giving more people opportunity? What better way could anyone spend money than by putting it back into the economy that gives more people work? The more you spend, the more people benefit, and the more people get in on the game and dovetail with you.

Your role is to utilize Energy. That is why you exist. You are an Energy-flowing Being—a focuser, a perceiver. You are a creator, and there is nothing worse in all of the Universe than to come forth into the environment of great contrast, where desire is easily born, and not allow Energy to flow to your desire.

That is a true squandering of life. There is no high work or low work. There are just opportunities to focus. You can feel as fulfilled and satisfied in any task as in any other, for you are on the Leading Edge of thought, and Source is flowing through you—no matter what your endeavor is. You can be joyful at any endeavor where you decide to allow the Energy to flow. Spiritual versus material are not the choices. Everything about this physical,

manifestational experience is spiritual.

It is all the end product of Spirit. You have nothing to prove. Be the Spiritual
You, and create like a physical fiend.

Your Financial Decline Will Not Elevate
the Impoverished

Think about what the economy was like
in this nation a few hundred years ago.

What has changed? Have more resources been trucked in from other planets? Or have there not been more people, over more time, who just identified more things that they desire and the Non-Physical Energy, which is endless and infinite, supplied that?

We never hear any of you say, "Well, I've been well for so many years that I've decided that I'm going to be sick for a while to allow some other people to be well," because you know that whether you are well or not does not have anything to do with others not getting enough wellness. You are not using up
the wellness and depriving them of it. And it is the same thing with the abundance.

People who have managed to find vibrational harmony with abundance—so that it is flowing to them and

through them—

are not depriving anyone else of that abundance. You cannot get poor enough to help the impoverished people thrive. It is only in your thriving that you have anything to offer anyone. If you want to be of help to others, be as tapped in, tuned in, and turned on as you can possibly be.

Feel appreciation for those who provide examples of well-being. How would you know that prosperity was possible if there was not some evidence of it around you? It is all part of the contrast that helps you sharpen your desire.

Money is not the root of happiness, but it is not the root of evil either. Money is the result of how somebody lines up Energy. If you do not want money, do not attract it. But we say to you that your criticism of others who have money holds you in a place where things you do want, such as wellness, clarity, and Well-Being, cannot come to you either.

If the subject of money makes you uncomfortable when you think about it, it means that there is strong desire related to it, which means that it really, really, really matters. So finding a way to think about it and feel good is your work. But it is equally effective to think about anything else and feel good—and let it in. You do not have to think about money in order to let in money. You just cannot think about lack of money and let in money.

*Success Is about the Joy You Feel

We love seeing you applauding someone else's success, because when you are genuinely thrilled by it, that means you are right on the track of your own.

Many think that success means getting everything they want. And we say that this is what dead is, and there is no such thing as that kind of dead. Success is not about getting it done. It is about still dreaming and feeling positive in the unfolding. The standard of success in life is not the money or the stuff—the standard of success is absolutely the amount of joy you feel.

You can say things such as, "When I look at successful people— and by that I mean rich people, yes, and I mean happy people— sometimes they are rich and happy. When I'm talking about the successful ones, what I really mean is the really happy people—people who are really joyful, who are eager to get on with their day. Almost all of them, without exception, had a pretty rough beginning, which turned them into powerful rebels, initially. Then they found a way to relax into their natural birthright of Well-Being.”

(Success is about a happy life, and a happy life is just a string of happy moments. But most people do not allow the happy moments because they are so busy trying to get a happy life.)

Instead of “Earning” Abundance, “Allow”
Your Abundance

Your action has nothing to do with your abundance! Your abundance is a response to your vibration. Of course your belief is part of your vibration, so if you believe that action is part of what brings you abundance, then you have to unravel that. We would like you to release the word earn from your vocabulary and your understanding altogether, and we would like you to replace it with the word allow.

You want to allow your Well-Being; it is not something that you need to earn. All you have to do is decide what you would like to experience, and then allow it in order to receive it. It is not something you have to struggle or try for. You are all worthy Beings, and you are deserving of this Well-Being.

All the resources you will ever want or need are at your fingertips. All you have to do is identify what you want to do with it and then practice the feeling-place of what it will be like when that happens. There is nothing you cannot be, do, or have; you are blessed Beings, and you have come forth into this physical environment to create. There is nothing holding you back other than your own contradictory thoughts. And your emotion tells you whenever you have such thoughts. Life is supposed to be fun—it is supposed to feel good! You are powerful creators, and you are right on schedule. Savor more; fix less. Laugh more; cry less. Anticipate positively more; anticipate negatively less. Nothing is more important than that you feel good. Just practice that and watch what happens.

So hope you liked above process by ABRAHAM HICKS, somewhere it also stresses on self happiness, so if you be happy, money would not be a big thing for you to attract, it would attract itself. You just concentrate on your happiness.

I would also like to share one of the visualisations technique which I will with my Law of Attraction friends as well soon.

- Close your eyes and imagine a scene of four sided red light and think that signal of all four side is not working and also imagine all the vehicles as Bunches of Money from all sides. If traffic signal is not working, traffic jam would happen, so vehicles keep on coming from all side and jamming there, so imagine how much money would be collected there, just say to yourself that this is your money.

*USING AFFIRMATIONS

Here I would tell you to stress on Affirmations part, keep saying yourself, I AM A MONEY MAGNET, MONEY COMES TO ME EASILY AND FREQUENTLY, feel the real joy here. Go to google and open a picture of huge money and save it and edit on paint brush and write on it as "MONEY COMES TO ME EASILY AND FREQUENTLY" and take its print and paste it on your wall where you frequently see it and tell yourself again and again, its true and you get money fast and easily. You can also question yourself, HOW AM I SO RICH? This will make you shed your resistance level easily.

Go to the secret website and take the print of a cheque and write the amount and take its print also and paste in your room where you see it daily. I have also done it . Other thing I have pasted in my bedroom is the picture of Golden Mercedes car where there is my name there on its number plate as JASJIT.

* MAKE A WISH BOX

Start putting chits in it how much money you want and believe that whatever you put in that box, becomes true, you can also use it for other wishes as well. But love that box and keep it at good place and leave rest to universe without thinking much. Say everything is fine, use gratitude several times.

Now I would share some posts I shared on my page which would of real help to you. I do not know whether you read or not, but still I am sending you:

1) First step to become rich is to apply

LAW OF TITHING. Which says to give away 10% of your earnings to real needy

and this 10% will start on multiplying

tenfold.

Some people have a mindset that we have zero income, so how do we give away 10%. Here this law comes, unless you do not give away, you cannot back.

First you have to give away to receive it multiplied.

If you have less of income, do not worry. Start leaving little portion of your

every meal. Suppose you take 4

Chapaatis in every meal, leave 1

Chapati

each meal with every little thing on it which you eat with Chapaati. You will see it multiplying. And when your income will increase, start increasing the giving away part.

All the Billionaires are Philanthropists also. Lets talk about Bill Gates. One side

he receives money other side he is earning much more than he gives away and still his income is getting multiplied day by day. This is the Golden Rule to become Rich.

2) Second step to become rich is to practice some techniques and one of the techniques I would like to share with you:

Keep a hundred dollar bill with you and go for window shopping and look for the items which cost hundred dollars and say to yourself that you have purchased it and feel good about it. Now go to another shop and again look for item costing hundred dollars and repeat same process and feel good and say thank you.

Repeat this for twenty or twenty five times and you will emit vibration that you have purchased all those items spending $ 2,500. Same time you are showing to the universe that you are rich and can afford to buy those things.

Practice this and you will start experiencing similar experiences in one or other form. Unexpected sources of income would open up so that you get the chance to buy those. Best of Luck.

3) 3rd Step to become Rich I would like to share with you all in the form of following exercise. Do Read it:

Law of Attraction- Prosperity Game

In this process, you will begin by establishing an imaginary checking account. In other words, there will be no actual bank involved, but you will make deposit entries and check withdrawals just as if it were an actual account. You could use an old checkbook system that is no longer in use, an accounting program in your computer, or you could even manufacture a complete system by using a notebook as your checkbook register and blank pieces of papers for your deposit slips and checks. It is of value to make this process feel as real to you as possible.

On the first day, deposit $1,000. And spend it. In other words, make a S

1,000 deposit entry into your checkbook register, then write out checks to spend those dollars. You could spend your money all in one place, using one check, or you could spend it for several different things, using several different checks.

The point of the game is to have fun thinking about what you would like to purchase, and to enjoy the process of actually writing out the checks.

Be descriptive on the memo portion of the check. For example: For a beautiful writing pen or Great running shoes or Membership at Gordon's Health Spa.

You can spend it all today, or save some of it for another day. However, we encourage you to do your best to spend it today, because tomorrow you will be making another wonderful deposit.

On the second day, deposit $2,000.

On the third day, deposit $3,000.

On the fourth day, deposit $4,000.

When you reach day 50, deposit $50,000. When you reach day 300, deposit $300,000. If you play this game every day for one year, you will have deposited and spent more than $66 million.

You will be benefiting by increasing your ability to imagine. In other words, you will discover, as you play the game for a few weeks, that it will begin to take real concentration to spend that much money. And so, your ability to imagine will expand tremendously.

Most of our physical friends really do not exercise their imagination very much. Most people offer their vibrations almost exclusively in response to what they are observing, but by playing this game, you will find yourself reaching for new ideas, and in time, you will feel the expansion of your own desire and expectation. In doing so, you will benefit by shifting your point of attraction.

You see, the Universe is responding to your vibrational offering, not to your current state of being. So, if you are giving your attention only to your current state of being, then your future evolves much the same.

But if you are giving focused attention to these wonderful expanding ideas that this game evokes from you, the Universe now responds to the vibrations of those thoughts.

The Universe makes no distinction between the vibration you offer in response to what you are living and the vibration that you offer in response to what you are imagining, so this Prosperity Game Process is a powerful tool for shifting your vibrational point of attraction.

You can play the game for a short time, or you can play it for an entire year or more. Whatever you choose is appropriate. It may feel awkward in the beginning, but the longer you play the game, the more expansive your imagination will become. And as your imagination expands and you focus on the spirit of fun and expansion, your point of attraction will shift.

By writing the checks, using your imagination, writing the memos, focusing as you write, and feeling no resistance as you write the checks because there is no fear of overspending, you will achieve what is necessary in the achievement of anything: You will have made a statement of desire while you are in the state of non-resistance, or better said, in the state of allowing.

So, not only will you have the benefit of an expanded imagination, but your point of attraction will shift, and your life experience will then shift as well.

Not only will your financial situation improve, but all manner of things that you have focused upon with pleasure will begin to flow into your experience.

4th Post to Get Rich. Read the following:

How Relaxation Creates Financial Abundance

Would you like to receive more financial abundance from the Universe? Would you like to be free from stressful financial issues forever? The secret to becoming Financially Receptive is to embrace a state of relaxation instead of stress about your current financial state. That's right! The more you relax into and surrender through your current stressful relationship with money, the more your energy field expands and opens, naturally attracting more prosperity into your life. How does this work?

The energy of relaxation carries a high vibration that instantly shifts you into a receptive state and consequently allows the Universe to fill your request for abundance. On the other hand, when you are stressed, you automatically shut down your manifesting channels, repelling that which you want to manifest. Vibrationally speaking, what you want to attract literally cannot come into your life because the energy of stress, fear and worry block it. So relax...really relax...and trust that all is going to be well no matter what happens. Go infinitely deeper and deeper into this relaxation, allowing the feeling of any financial burden to be lifted from your life forever.

"The greatest revolution of our generation is the discovery that human beings, by changing the inner attitudes of their minds, can change the outer aspects of their lives."

~William James

The good news is that relaxation is EASY to do, and it feels soooooooo good to do it! Relaxation is your natural state, and therefore you can effortlessly tap into the part of you that is always relaxed and knows that you are divinely supported. Deep relaxation is something you can look forward to, yet how frequently do you give this gift to yourself? Can you simply decide to let yourself relax more than ever before this month? When you create time sit, meditate and turn your attention in to the divine abundant spiritual essence that you are, you open up your energy field to receiving more abundance from the Universe.

The power of the mind goes beyond anything you believe is possible. You set your limitations in life, life doesn't set them for you. Simply decide that you are going to open yourself up to receiving more abundance AND relaxation this week. Claim your right to break the bonds of what may seem impossible. Choose the time and space you see yourself doing this in now.

Remember, it's always good to recite this all-powerful financial affirmation before you relax into deeper abundance, "The more naps I take, the more money I make!" Here are three more amazing techniques below to help you relax about your current finances, and thus receive more abundance from the Universe. Enjoy!

1. Relax your Body-Mind through Conscious Breathing Whenever you notice you are worrying about money, stop what you are doing and begin to do deep breathing. The very act of breathing takes you deeper into your body. Breathing anchors you into your physical form, which always is abiding in the God-Source that is always here now.

This Source is the most loving, abundant state you'll ever find. So take a moment right now and take 3 deep breaths. With each breath, breathe in relaxation, and with each out-breath, release any stress or tension you have. Do you notice a feeling a deeper peace in your body yet? Breathe deeper and include all the thoughts and emotions you're stressed about. Breathe until you can feel the peace. Then, let it in because you deserve it!! This will center you, and automatically re-open your energy field to receive the abundance that is wanting you.

“Breathe. Let go. And remind yourself that this very moment is the only one you know you have for sure.” ~ Oprah Winfrey

2. Be Grateful for the Abundance You

Do Have One of the most powerful ways to open up your ability to receive more abundance is to relax into the energy of gratitude. The act of feeling grateful for the money that you DO have instantly shifts the energy in every cell of your body, as well as those electrons in your bank account! As you flood your body-mind with gratitude, you start to feel complete and whole on the deepest levels. When you are thankful, you know that your "cup runneth over", and are no longer in the habit of desperately searching for ways to fill it up.

This old world unconscious search for something to fill you up is what creates the lack in your bank account. The yearning, needing, and searching feeling creates stress in your body which blocks the abundance you are here to receive.

Connecting with deep feelings of gratitude means everything is already perfect exactly as it is, and that manifesting more money is not the most important thing in life. This concept frees you from money, and on one level instantly makes you financially free! So every time you start to strive for more abundance in your life, stop... and be grateful for what you already have. You'll see how effortless it is to receiving more financial prosperity down the road.

"When you are grateful, fear disappears and abundance appears." ~ Anthony Robbins

3. Daily Visualize Receiving The Prosperity You Desire Visualization supports your entire mind-body in relaxing, and thus receiving more abundance because it creates a blueprint for success in your subconscious mind. When you create a mental movie of what the abundance you want looks and feels like, your subconscious believes that this mental movie is your current reality. The subconscious mind does not know the difference between reality and imagination. When you imagine biting into a spicy taco, you start to salivate right? Your mind believes and knows that you are ALREADY abundant right now, your whole body goes "Ahhhhh" and simultaneously starts magnetizing what you want in your life. The key to a highly effective visualization is to connect strong feeling states to the pictures that you create in your mind. So take a moment right now and see yourself manifesting what you do desire. Feel it in your body and keep turning up the volume on the strong abundant and positive feelings this imagery creates.

"Abundance is not something we acquire. It is something we tune into." ~

Wayne

(Jafree Ozwald and Margot Zaher)

Other than that its really important to vibrate higher level, feel happy and meditate and use gratitude and visualize and see yourself and feel yourself on the highest level possible, make a video of it in the mind. I would like to share a story for you on vibration. Read the following:

Raise your VIBRATION level higher

I knew the law of attraction even before
The Secret came out but The Secret made it simpler for me to understand the process of manifestation.... Was there a time when you really, really want to manifest something in your life and you did all the things such as visualization, having vision boards, positive thinking and affirmations and what you asked still hasn't showed up?
And you get frustrated wondering if it is going to manifest or not? That's when doubts start creeping in. I read two stories from this website where both of them manifested something very big and another story from a website whereby the person also manifested something very big. I thought to myself how come they are able to attract something so big within a short period of time and some of us still counting our days for our manifestation to occur? I sat and I compared these three stories and what they did to manifest this huge stuff. Finally I figured out what was missing? FEELING GOOD NOW... All three stories from these people mentioned that they put themselves in a really, really, really high vibration to attract what they want, and that was what The Secret was talking about. This is what I learned from The Secret and other teachers as well..

When I want to manifest something,, I just hold that image clearly in my mind, or other words visualize, believe that I could achieve it, even if people make fun of me, know that it's on its way to me, and last but not least the process of ALLOWING it to manifest. To allow it to manifest we must put ourselves in a really higher vibration of really feeling good and practicing gratitude. No doubt there are times whereby our surroundings can make us feel down but this is where we must be strong and use our will power to feel good, even when we are surrounded by negative people. So, back to myself? I did manifest a lot of things previously but just two weeks ago I really put myself on a really high vibration, and the fastest way to get into that frequency is to feel gratitude. The more I feel gratitude, the more my vibration level SOARS, and I notice during that period of time that whatever I think about manifest SO fast. Now, not all of us go for the same things in life. I'm not looking to manifest a lottery win because I consider myself financially blessed, however of course like anyone else I desire some other things in life. It is all about going with the flow and not stressing out, and what most motivational teachers say is that when you go with the flow, eventually your desires will show right in front of you. Often times when we ask for something we desire, we don't put ourselves in a good feeling and that is why it hinders our manifestation. From what I have heard, when the moment you ask it is given immediately, but we must be aligned to it in order to receive it, so I made a promise to myself that I'm going to stay in this vibration and nothing is going to bring me down.
